Just As The Sun Went Down

Words and Music
By LYN UDALL

Moderato

After the din of the battle's roar, Just at the close of day,
One knew the joy of a mother's love, One of a sweetheart's fair,

Wounded and bleeding up on the field, Two dying soldiers lay,
Thinking of home, they lay side by side, Breathing a fare-well pray;

One held a ringlet of thin gray hair, One held a lock of brown,
One for his mother so old and gray, One for his love in town;

Bid-ding each other a last fare-well, just as the sun went down.
They closed their eyes to the earth and skies, just as the sun went down.

REFRAIN Slowly, with much expression

One thought of mother, at home alone, Feeble and old and gray;

One of the sweet-heart he left in town, Happy and young and gay.

One kissed a ringlet of thin gray hair, One kissed a lock of brown,

Well to the Stars and Stripes, Just as the sun went down,
